However, I have not used the crack for any of the ETAP products. So I cant determine if the crack did actually work. Thank you in advance. A: I downloaded your etap software from your website and it seems fine to me. I think you meant to download the cracked version. It appears that you may have cracked the file but you are required to register at etap before you can use the program. 948 F.2d 1287 NOTICE: Sixth Circuit Rule 24(c) states that citation of unpublished dispositions is disfavored except for establishing res judicata, estoppel, or the law of the case and requires service of copies of cited unpublished dispositions of the Sixth Circuit. James Wesley ROGERS, Petitioner-Appellant, v. Jack MORGAN, Director of Kentucky's Department of Corrections, Respondent-Appellee. No. 91-6534. United States Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit. Nov. 7, 1991. Before BOYCE F. MARTIN, Jr. and BOGGS, Circuit Judges, and CONTIE, Senior Circuit Judge. ORDER 1 James Wesley Rogers, a Kentucky state prisoner, appeals from an order of the district court which dismisses his petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. This case has been referred to a panel of the court pursuant to Rule 9(a), Rules of the Sixth Circuit. Upon examination, this panel unanimously agrees that oral argument is not needed. Fed.R.App.P. 34(a). 2 A jury convicted Rogers of first degree rape and first degree sodomy and the trial court sentenced him to ten years imprisonment for each offense. On direct appeal, the Kentucky Court of Appeals affirmed the conviction. That court's opinion stated that the trial court sentenced Rogers to two ten year sentences and two five year sentences, concurrent to each other, for a total of ten years in prison. Rogers, however, argued in his first petition for a writ of habeas corpus that he should have been sentenced to ten years imprisonment for each count because five years was the minimum sentence for each offense. The district court dismissed the petition and Rogers appeals. 3 Upon review, we affirm the district court's order because the indictment charged Rogers with 3da54e8ca3
