This new beta follows the first Open Beta of Spring 2019, and will be accessible until September 1st, 2019. Please note that after September 1st, 2019, the beta will be closed for a short period of time, followed by a further period of open play until January 2020. It is strictly recommended that everyone keep their original game client installed, as the latest version of the game server cannot be used in this closed beta phase. Xiria has just released their 6th closed beta test and we are happy to announce a promotion for Evo! This version (6.0.0) will have numerous changes, updates and fixes across the full range of game modes, and we will continue to add more new modes and features. We will also be adding some significant changes to our Community features during the beta. In celebration of a successful beta period (which exceeded our expectations!), the complete experience will be granted free of charge to those who have been subscribed to the Early Access program. Evolution - Americas Rising 6.0.0 has entered open beta, starting today. The early access program has been re-enabled! Purchase an early access user account through our website, at any time during the beta, and get full access to Evo in the Americas. To celebrate, for the first 30 days of the beta, you will also receive full game access for a discounted price of $35. PS4, XBOX One, PC desktop users will receive the latest version of the game client at this time. Those on PS4 or XBOX will continue to have access to this version of the game client. Others will not be able to play until the beta period is over. This version (6.0.0) will have numerous changes, updates and fixes across the full range of game modes, and we will continue to add more new modes and features. We will also be adding some significant changes to our Community features during the beta. To see a complete list of changes coming in 6.0.0,
