P2P The 2Way2U website lists its peer-to-peer (P2P) activity as a torrent tracker. The site is currently on its third anniversary and has over 13 million active torrents. Domain registration On 17 May 2007, 2Way2U announced that it had registered the domain names 2way.to, 2way.org and 2way.id. Litigation On 14 January 2009, 2Way2U filed a trademark dispute against Saafi.com. This was resolved when Saafi.com agreed not to use 2Way2U's trademark. Subsequently, on 26 February 2009, 2Way2U filed a suit against Malaysian citizens Kolon, Goh Chee Wei, Rawi Arifin and Nutibah in the High Court of Victoria, Australia. The suit alleged that these individuals had obtained a trademark registration for TAYEEN.COM in the United States (US) by fraudulently registering the domain name. 2Way2U claimed the name was similar to the T2YEN.com mark that it had registered. On 8 June 2009, a US district court declared that the application in US trademark registration was fraudulent. As a result, TAYEEN.COM was cancelled and 2Way2U acquired ownership of the name.
